Dear James Earl Ray:

This is just to let you know that I have received your letter to me. It went to South Carolina first. Please write me here in Massachusetts if you should have any reason to write me again. I'm going to be living here until I finish my book.

I still would like to talk with you, and if you change your mind about that, please let me know.

Here's an idea I had. Would you be interested in reading my manuscript--that is, before it is published?

Sincerely,

George McMillan
